

Nagasaki University
Graduate School of Engineering, Master's Degree
Department of Advanced Engineering
Entrance Examination for International Students
(Winter Application)

Notice

The 2021 entrance examination for international students for the master's program (scheduled on Tuesday, December 15, 2020) will be carried out via an interview and an oral examination. However in order to cope with difficult situation of travel due to the COVID-19, for this time only, applicants who live outside Japan at the time of application may conduct an Online Entrance Examination over the Internet.

<Application Period>

From November 24, 2020 (Tue) to November 30, 2020 (Mon)

<Online Entrance Examinations>

Applicants who apply for the Online Entrance Examination (Interview) must contact his /her prospective academic advisor and have through discussion after submitting their CV and own research contents one month before the application period starts.

※If an Online Entrance Examination is to be conducted, each applicant will be notified individually.

<Applicable Programs>

- * Mechanical Engineering Program
- * Electrical and Electronic Engineering Program
- * Structural Engineering Program
- * Civil and Environmental Engineering Program
- * Chemistry and Materials Engineering Program